

We are currently recruiting participants for a research study that examines how people make economic decisions. Each experimental session will last approximately 2 hours. You will be paid $10 for showing up to the session on time. You will have the opportunity to earn additional money which will be paid either at the end of your session or at a future date according to the instructions. Additionally you will complete a short survey.

If you are interested in participating, you can sign up for the next available session at:

#link#

You must be an undergraduate student and at least 18 years old to participate in this study. You are receiving this email because you previously indicated your interest in participating in the research we do at the University. If you have questions, or would like to be removed from this list, please feel free to send me an email to expecon@resecon.umass.edu. Our website (<http://umass.edu/expecon/>) provides more information about our lab, our researchers, and our research projects.

Thank you very much,
Dr. Angela de Oliveira

Associate Professor
Department of Resource Economics
UMass Amherst